MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

It certainly has been a whirlwind Spring! Not only have we been blessed with an abundance of rain to fill our stock tanks and lakes, our team at WFCU has been blessed to once again provide financial training to our communities. Thanks to Archer City, Midway & Windthorst ISD for allowing us to present the Reality Fair & Financial Tips to the Senior Classes. And speaking of school...Congratulations to ALL our area graduates and especially our eight scholarship winners who received $500 each to help accomplish their goal of higher education!

WFCU once again donated to the Windthorst Birthday Celebration raffle and auction, sponsored the Burger Bash for Archer Service Center & the Food Truck Championship in Graham, TX, and entered a float in the Archer Co. Rodeo Parade along with sponsoring the rodeo! We continue to call Bingo & provide prizes for the Windthorst and Archer City Senior Citizens. Our Team at WFCU thoroughly enjoys the opportunity to support our local communities and give back to everyone who supports our local credit union!

Our primary goal is to provide a safe, competitive and reliable choice for our members. So please remember Windthorst Federal Credit Union for ALL your financial needs!

I hope everyone gets the opportunity to relax and enjoy your summer with family and friends.

Sincerely,

Judy L Koetter

Bring Your Credit Union's VISA® Check Card for Summer Travel

Take your VISA® Check Card from Windthorst FCU with you wherever you go this summer, whether you're heading to the mountains or a tropical beach. With our VISA® Check Card, you'll have 24/7 access to your accounts. Whether you choose to use credit or debit, your funds will be withdrawn directly from your Checking Account.

When you use your check card, you'll also have additional security features, such as continuous fraud monitoring to detect and prevent suspicious activity on your debit card. Please inform the Credit Union of your travel plans to avoid a hold being placed on your card for suspected fraudulent activity.

Don't have a VISA® Check Card yet? Sign up for one before you go on your vacation this summer to make traveling easier and more convenient.

Protect Yourself from Phone Scams and Vishing

If you immediately answer your phone whether you recognize who is calling or not, you aren't alone. In today's world, the chances of the person on the other end being a scammer looking to trick you into giving out your personal information are good. And, even if you think you know who is calling, you may be mistaken. Don't be fooled by what you see on your caller ID since many scammers are able to make it look like a call is coming from a government agency, a well-known company (like Amazon, Google, or Apple), and even your financial institution.

There are some easy steps you can take to protect yourself from malicious activity:

- Never feel pressured to give information over the phone. Keep your personal information and passcodes private and never give it out during an unsolicited phone call.
- Don't download "troubleshooting" apps, because they'll allow the fraudster to take over your device.
- If you think the call may be from your financial institution, insurance, or credit card company, find their phone number on your statement or card and call that number to verify.
- Educate yourself about common scam practices.
- Use call-blocking tools. Some phone providers and many smartphones have tools that will allow you to block calls from undesirable numbers. If you get a scam call, block the number.
